BRITON DISTURBED BY IRISH HECKLERS announced it had approved text books to be used.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Police reserves were rushed to Carnegie Hall last night to suppress a disturbance during an address by Sir Philip Gibbs, English war correspondent and author, occasioned by his references to appropriations by the United States for new battleships. His subject was "What a Man Means to the World."

The interruptions came from the audience when persons veicing frish haspirations who grew demonstrative after the speaker, glluding to naval expansion, declared:

"There is no quarrel between your country and mine. America may build a big may, but it will not raise a hair in a single Englishman's head."

Sir Philip was greeted with hoots and cat calls, chiefly from the gallery. For several minutes he was preventage from the principal losses were be-
